A HISTORY AND GENEALOGY
OF ISAAC AND SARAH BURGESS

By Eugene Jay Nielsen

INTRODUCTION

For an introduction to my first book, I would like to tell a little about myself. My home town is Oberon, North Dakota, where I have lived all of my life. I graduated from high school there and attended Interstate Business College in Fargo, North Dakota for two years. I first became interested in the Burgess ancestry in November, 1958, when I received a reply from a New York library concerning the Stowell genealogy. My future plans are for several more books; namely, a history of Oberon, it's churches and cemeteries, the descendants of George and W. Jefferson Burgess, my other lines of ancestry and genealogies of my other grandparents families.

A book of this kind takes a lot of time and patience. I have tried to get all descendants; however, this is quite a chore. With so many names and dates there is a chance of error. If there are errors they are purely unintentional. I would like to take this opportunity to acknowledge help from the following: Norman Seguin, Elna Hazen, Guy Green's, Hazel McCune, Ora Giffit, May Hyslop, Edna Birtzer, Buelah Turney, Orpha McDonell, Sheridan Burgess, Lloyd Burgess, Candis Johnson, Eliza McPhail, the late I. Derwood Burgess, and the late Maude Burgess.

I would like to also mention something about the graves of some of the relatives. On the Kennedy lot at Minnewaukan, two graves are not marked. One grave is that of Rachel Stowell, the other is probably an infant daughter of Ethie and Isaac Kennedy. There are also two graves in the Hadleyville cemetery in Wisconsin that are not marked. They are next to the grave of Timothy Burgess and probably the graves of Rachel and Nora Burgess. I would like to see some kind of marker put on these graves before the older generation passes on and the location of the graves are forgotten. Rachel Stowell's bible needs a rebinding job quite badly and I am going to try and take care of this.

I would like to further say that I am looking foward in the future years to meeting many of you, and if you are ever around Minnewaukan, look me or my family up at Oberon, which is 11 miles south. Anyone who knows anything about the ancestry of the Burgesses and Stowells are welcome to correspond with me. They can write to me at Oberon, North Dakota.

In the following pages you will find several towns mentioned that are not on the map. They are Pleasant Valley, Otter Creek, Clear Creek, and Washington. These are not towns now and I believe that all of these townships are located in the county of Eau Claire, in Wisconsin.

One hundred copies of this book are being made and any proceeds left over will be used for further genealogical work on the Burgess and Stowells.

THE TIMOTHY BURGESS FAMILY

Timothy Burgess was married to Lodica Porter, November 1, 1814, at Constantia, New York. His father was believed to be Patrick Henry Burgess. The Burgesses were believed to be of Irish ancestry. Timothy served in the War of 1812 from October 27, 1814, to November 20, 1814. He volunteered at Onondaga, New York and was discharged a private at Sandy Creek, New York.

I do not know how early they came to Wisconsin, but he filed a declaration for bounty land on January 16, 1856, at Dodge Co., Wisconsin. On April 8, 1871, he made a declaration for pension. At that time he was residing at Portland, Dodge Co., Wisconsin.

Timothy Burgess died the last of April, 1885, at Hadleyville, Wisconsin. He is buried in the Hadleyville Cemetery, Eau Claire Co., Wisconsin. He as well as his wife and all of the children were believed to have been born in New York state.

Children(Burgess):

- (1) Else
- (2) George Washington
- (3) Sera married Edwin Smith
- (4) Cordele married Harv Nelson
- (5) Jo Ann married James Woodford
- (6) Mary married Charles Woodford
- (7) Isaac Henry
- (8) William Jefferson

I have no knowledge of any of the descendants of the girls of Timothy and Lodica, except that Cordele and Jo Ann went west and were never heard from again. The last time anything was heard of them was when Leslie, son of Cordele, died in New Mexico.

OLD FAMILY POSSESSIONS

A small metal case about 2" x 3". It opens like a book. The inside of the cover is lined with red felt. The other side of the case contains a picture(tintype) under glass of Rachel Stowell and her daughter Sarah. The case and picture is about 123 years old.

Civil War diary of William Stowell, brother of Sarah Burgess, about 100 years old.

Family bible with the name Rachel Stowell engraved in gold on the cover, about 83 years old. The bible contains several pictures, letters from W. Jefferson Burgess, numerous other items, and a ribbon about 2" x 6". The ribbon is titled TIFECANOE CLUB; it has a picture of President Harrison and a log cabin on the bottom of it. This ribbon is about 125 years old.

A charcoal drawing of Isaac and Sarah Burgess taken about 1804. It is about 2' x 3'.

1. The first of these is the fact that the Commission has not yet received any information from the Government of the United States regarding the results of its investigation into the activities of the American Friends Service Committee in the Philippines.

[illegible]

A charcoal drawing of Rachel Stowell taken about 1870. This picture is larger than that mentioned of Isaac and Sarah.

A picture of William Stowell taken about 1840.

A picture of Elsie Burgess taken about 1840; she is missing a hand.

A down comforter made by Rachel Stowell, about 75 years old.

A letter from Isaac and Sarah Burgess to Cora and Alonzo Thomson. It is dated March 11, 1888, Minnewaukan, North Dakota. It contains a lock of Rachel Stowell's hair. The following is the letter:

March 11, 1888

Dear Children:

I now sit down to write a few lines to let you know that we are all well at present and hope you are the same. Well it is almost spring and we are glad to see spring come, but we ain't had a very bad winter. After all it has been harder in the southern part of Dakota than it has been here. We got a letter from Ella and Will (Elnia and William Arries). They wrote they was well and made lots of butter and had lots of work to do and you have got another girl. I'll guess you take after me, never mind Cora, you will have a boy for every girl you got yet. Fanny and Hank was up here. She said she wrote a letter to her Aunt Fanny and you answered it for her, McClellan wrote. She had joined the church so they thought she didn't feel like writing what she wanted to so she got you to write. If I was you she might have answered his own letters. I wouldn't make myself enemies by everyone else. You know the good will of a dog is better than the ill will. Fanny was here and said she was going to write to Fanny. She was sure her Aunt Fanny would send a little money to get some wood, but I told her it was no use for they would say if mother's pension wouldn't take care of her, let her die, and they found out so. But mother was kept warm while she lived and would have if it did take the last thing we had in the world. It did take the last cent so we didn't get any clothes, but it is spring now and I guess that we will be alright. I heard she said Ike's folks would get along here the same as we always did, so I suppose she thought it throwing money away to send a little, but it is alright. Well, I must close for want of room, but the idea of Fanny saying Hanks was rich, it don't seem possible. Cora, you would be convinced if you was there, well goodbye. Write soon. To Cora and Lon. This is from your mother.

I wish I could see you and the children. I will send you a lock of Grandma's hair (Rachel Stowell). I will write to Fanny before long. She hasn't answered the one I did write, but then I will write.

Well, Lon and Cora, I will write a few lines to let you know that we are all well at the present and hope these few lines will find you all the same. We got your letter and got $2.00, and I got that other money you sent me. Well, I haven't much to write, but I will tell you what you had better do. You had better let Fan write her own letter, and you write yours. Fan says that Hank is rich, but he is a good way from that. Hank has got 7 cows and 3 old horses, and 3 pigs and owes a lot.

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that this is essential for the proper management of the organization's finances and for ensuring transparency in all dealings.

2. The second part of the document outlines the specific procedures for recording transactions. It details the steps that must be followed, from the initial entry of a transaction into the system to the final review and approval of the records.

3. The third part of the document addresses the issue of data security. It discusses the various risks associated with the loss or theft of financial data and provides recommendations for how to protect this information from unauthorized access.

4. The fourth part of the document discusses the importance of regular audits. It explains how audits can help to identify errors and discrepancies in the records and provide a means of verifying the accuracy of the information.

5. The fifth part of the document discusses the importance of training. It emphasizes that all staff members who are involved in the recording of transactions must be properly trained in the relevant procedures and standards.

6. The sixth part of the document discusses the importance of communication. It explains that clear and effective communication is essential for ensuring that all staff members are aware of the relevant procedures and standards and for resolving any issues that may arise.

7. The seventh part of the document discusses the importance of documentation. It emphasizes that all transactions must be properly documented and that this documentation must be maintained in a secure and accessible manner.

8. The eighth part of the document discusses the importance of compliance. It explains that the organization must ensure that all transactions are recorded in accordance with the relevant laws and regulations and that this compliance is monitored and reported on regularly.

9. The ninth part of the document discusses the importance of reporting. It explains that the organization must provide regular reports on the financial performance and that these reports must be based on accurate and reliable data.

10. The tenth part of the document discusses the importance of review. It emphasizes that the records must be reviewed regularly to ensure that they are accurate and up-to-date and that any errors or discrepancies are identified and corrected.

Besides that, he has got to buy his seed this spring and so have I. You might think it didn't cost me much while Grandma was sick, but it cost me $75., for wood in five months and that ain't all, that is a small part. Well, I haven't much to write this time, so good by. Write soon as you get this so don't wait. This is from your father to Lon to Cora. Kiss the babies for me.

THE FAMILY OF GEORGE BURGESS

George Washington Burgess, was born January 29, 1824, near Utica, New York; died at Dunseith, North Dakota. George married Permelia Sweet, November 22, 1852, at Waterloo, Wisconsin. Permelia was born January 19, 1831, at Kingston, Canada; died August 22, 1910, at Dunseith, North Dakota. It is believed that Permelia was a daughter of wealthy parents. George, Permelia, and family emigrated to Dakota Territory in the spring of 1885.

Children(Burgess):

Candis was born July 25, 1873, at Otter Creek, Wisconsin; married a Johnson, November 18, 1912, at Esmond, North Dakota. No children.

Robert was born July 10, 1879, at Otter Creek, Wisconsin; married July 22, 1909, at Dunseith, North Dakota; died in Wisconsin.

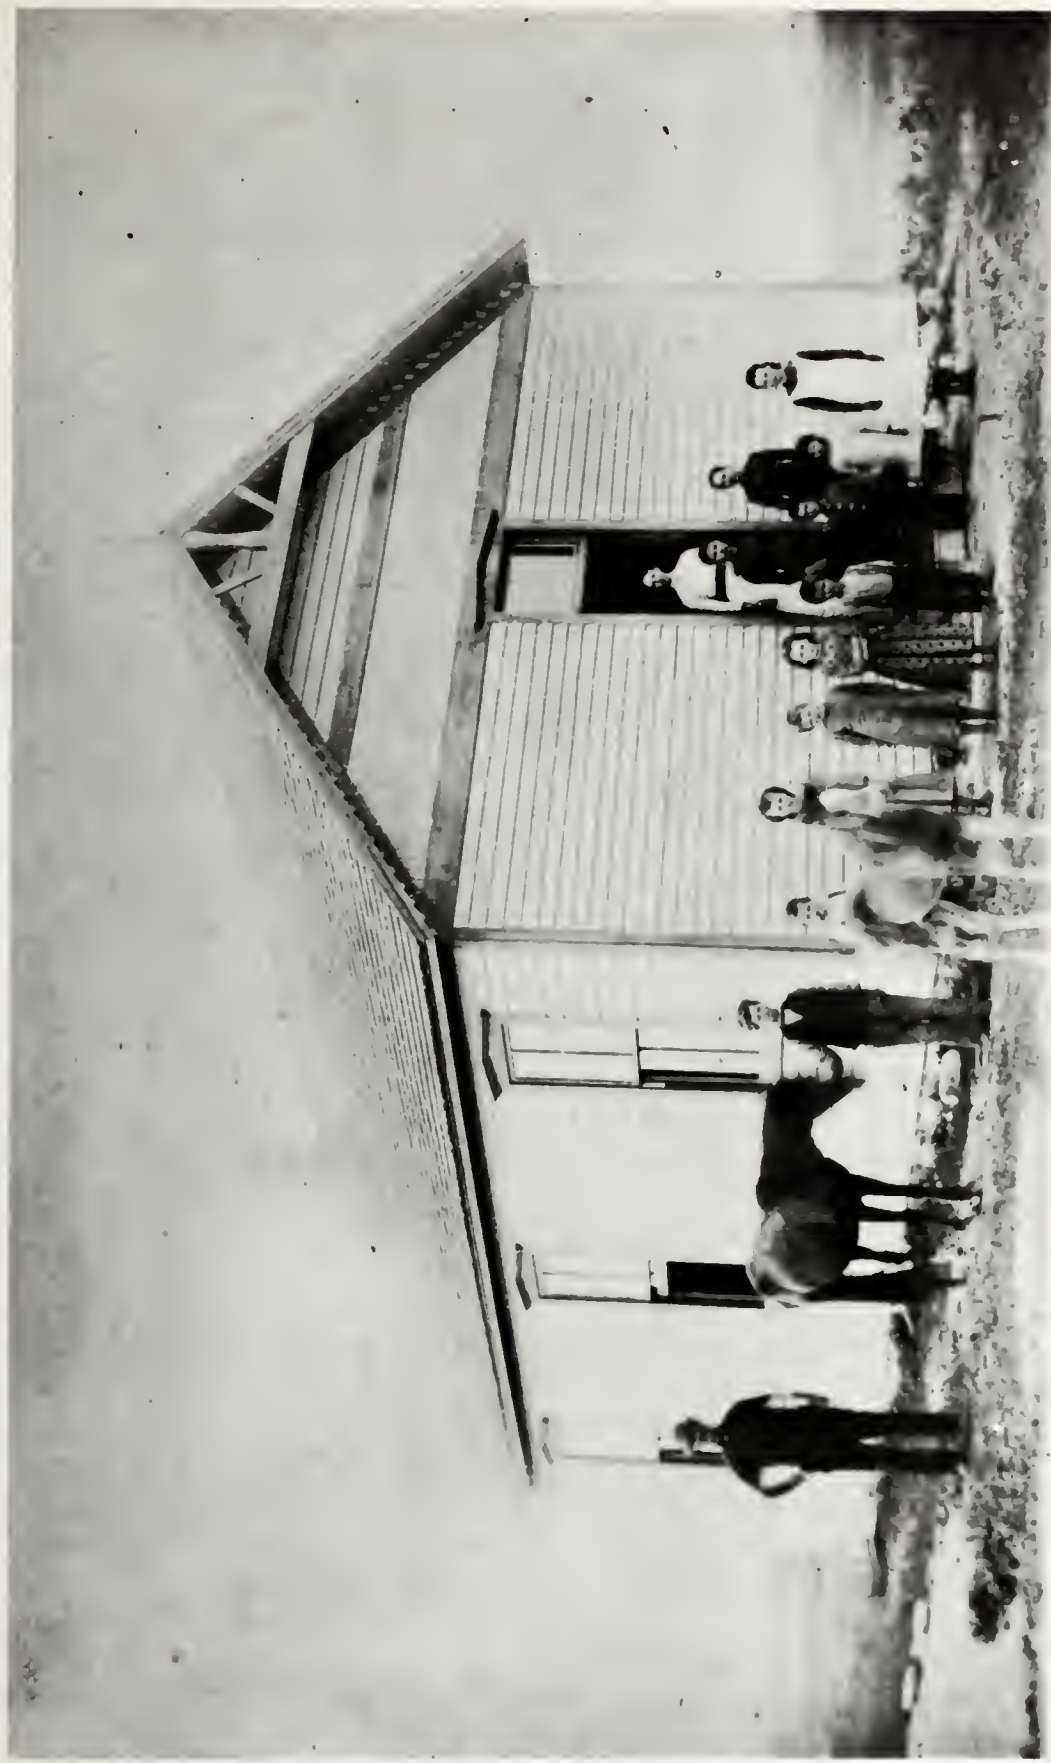

THE ISAAC H. BURGESS FAMILY.

Isaac Burgess, son of Timothy and Lodica Burgess was born May 4, 1833, at Boonville, New York and came to Wisconsin in the early 1850's. Before his marriage, he went down to Louisiana, where he worked in the docks unloading goods. He told of seeing bacon piled so high that you couldn't see the sun. The bacon was piled out on the docks in the bright sun and the grease ran all over.

Isaac H. Burgess's sister Sera was a wife of a Civil War veteran. She once had a dream, which consisted of several plans. When she woke up she told her husband that there was a large rock buried in the garden and under this rock was some money. She took her husband to a certain spot and showed him where to dig. He dug until he came to a large rock. By this time, he was tired so he quit digging. They never did find out what was under the rock.

Another story that Sheridan and Maude Burgess told me was about one of Sarah Stowell's brothers; it was either Livingstone or John Stowell. This brother had lockjaw and was in bad pain. Someone suggested cutting off his toe and burying it under a rock. This was done, however, it did not ease the pain. Then someone asked the young boy where and how they buried the toe. The boy told him. The rock was taken off the toe and the lad had immediate relief from the pain. He lived many years after.

Burgess came to Minnewaukan, Dakota Territory, in the winter of 1886. Minnewaukan was then very bare and the end of the railroad. They packed all their belongings in a boscar at Eau Claire, Wisconsin and took off for a desolate land. Some of the passengers rode on the boxcars and some rode in the passenger cars. The winters, during this period of time were very cold, very little snow, and the summers were dry. As a result of these conditions there were poor crops and the family had to move back to Wisconsin. Another reason was that the water of Devils Lake was very salty and this bothered Sarah.

In 1886, Minnewaukan was very bare. You could look in all directions north, east, and south of Minnewaukan and couldn't see a tree anyplace except at Stoney Lake. There was one trail angling off to the southwest of Minnewaukan. This was called the Antelope Valley trail, as it went out into Antelope Valley township. There were only about three or four claims southwest of Minnewaukan. They consisted of a tar paper shack which was about 12 x 12 feet. For heat they hauled wood from Graham's Island, which was about 12 miles away. Most of the wood was green elm and it had to be split with an ax. During this time the children were educated in a country school, near Stoney Lake, which has since been moved away.

In the 1880's, Long Lake, Round Lake, and Devils Lake were all connected as one body of water. There was a wooden bridge where the present culverts are located on the N. P. tracks near Minnewaukan. Uncle Sheridan told me of people catching fish with their hands and pitchforks at these culverts.

Rachel Stowell came to Dakota Territory with Isaac and Ethie Kennedy a couple years before Isaac H. and Sarah came. When Isaac H. Burgess and Sarah came to Minnewaukan, Rachel lived with them. She died during the winter of 1887 and was buried that spring on the Burgess claim. When Isaac H. Kennedy's moved to Minnewaukan, they moved Rachel's body to the Presbyterian Cemetery at Minnewaukan. There is no trace of any buildings of the Burgess homestead.

North Dakota used to have many prairie fires before the 1900's. They would burn many miles before stopping as there were no people to stop them as well as little broken land. There was once a fire that started down by the Missouri River and burned all the way to an area west of Minnewaukan in one day. This fire was said to have jumped a hundred foot fire bread. These fires burned everything in their way except the tar paper shacks, which created a back wind. The back wind held the fire back until it had burned around the building, then it continued on its way.

Isaac D. Burgess told me of the sky being lit up at night so much that it lit up the whole room in their shack. He became so scarred at times that he would crawl under his bed. The county collected 3¢ for gopher tails and people sometimes collected as much as $10.

There was never any trouble with the Indians at that time as the soldiers were at the fort until after they left. About 1920, a wagon train was seen passing east of Oberon. There were two or three wagons, which consisted of about 17 people. They were of the Stowell family, who were going to a mountain in Missouri as they thought the world was coming to an end. They were Salu Stowell, his family, his son Will, and his family. They came down from Dunseith, North Dakota.

Sarah Burgess died in 1910 of consumption and Isaac H. Burgess, died of a stroke in 1919. Rachel Stowell also died of a stroke.

I would like to mention something of the family gatherings held in North Dakota by the Burgess clan. The New Years dinner was held at the home of Sheridan and Maude Burgess. Easter dinner was served at the home of Isaac D. and Hulda Burgess. Thanksgiving dinner was held just across the street from I. D. Burgesses at the Isaac H. and Ethie Kennedy home. Charlie and Irene Jacot gave the Christmas dinner in Oberon. This also included a supper on Christmas Eve.

When Isaac and Sarah were alive they served the fourth of July dinner. They had a large beautiful yard. The family members and other guests ate at a long table spread under the apple trees.

My mother told me of coming to Charles Jacot's when it was storming. She was probably about the age of six at the time. Her father, I. D. Burgess, and her mother Hulda Burgess, would put a small sleigh in a freight car and take the train to Oberon. When they got to Oberon they took the sleigh off the train, put the children into it and pushed them the five blocks to Jacot's.

Isaac Henry Burgess was born May 4, 1833, at Boonville, New York; died November 20, 1919, at Minnewaukan, North Dakota. Isaac married Sarah Stowell, May 19, 1857, at Delona, Sauk Co., Wisconsin. Sarah was born December 8, 1839, at Depauville, New York; died April 6, 1910, at Minnewaukan, North Dakota. They were married by A. Montgomery.

THE WILLIAM A. ARRIES FAMILY

The first Arries in this country was Mansfield Arries, Sr., his wife, Jane Davidson nee Hall, and several of their children. Mansfield's parents were John Arries, a blacksmith, who married a Miss Wright; both lived to an advanced age and died in Scotland. Mansfield married twice. His first wife was Cecily Hope, who bore him four children and died in the prime of her life in Scotland. Mansfield then married Jane Davidson nee Hall, who bore him four children in Scotland.

Mansfield and Jane came to the U.S.A. in 1842 with four of the sons, leaving in Scotland two sons and two daughters. Some of them came over later. He first settled in New York for several years, and then moved to Lodi, Wisconsin about 1847, where they are buried. Mansfield was born in 1784; died in 1856. Jane was born 1781; died in 1857.

The children of the first marriage are believed to be John, Alexander, Jane, and another daughter. The children of the second marriage were William Mansfield, born December 29, 1819-died April 22, 1884; Mansfield, 1823-1908; Andrew, August 31, 1825-March 19, 1887; and Archibald, January 26, 1829-January 6, 1902

William is the forefather of the Arries concerned in this genealogy. He settled in Louisville, Kentucky, marrying a girl by the name of Wilson and had one daughter. It is believed that his first wife died and then he married a German girl by the name of Cresenzia Vogt, in 1855. They came to Lodi, Wisconsin in the fall of 1856.

The next spring, they went to Augusta, Wisconsin, and settled on a farm, which is the home place as we know it today. The children of this marriage were Mansfield Jacob, November 9, 1856-September, 1937; William Andrew, April 17, 1858-December 29, 1930; Archie, drowned in a sink hole near farm when two years old; Isabell Sybilla, 1862-1946, married Tom Little; Francis Albertha, 1863-1920, married Ebban Perry and Allen Randles; Frank Alexander, 1863-1942, married Annie Bennan and had two daughters; and Edward John, buried in California.

The William Andrew Arries mentioned above married Elnia Valnet Burgess in Otter Creek, Eau Claire County, Wisconsin on February 22, 1882. Family lore says that the first William and Cresenzia each drove a team of oxen from Louisville, Kentucky to Augusta, Wisconsin. Cresenzia was born April 6, 1834, and died June 22, 1915. She was born and raised Catholic, was a Baptist for many years, and then turned to Christian Scientist, which she practiced to the end of her life. William and Elnia Arries were good solid people and hard working as most of the Burgesses were. They had a very nice farm with good buildings on it.

1. The first part of the paper is devoted to a study of the properties of the function $f(x)$ defined by the equation

$$f(x) = \int_0^x \frac{1}{1+t^2} dt$$

It is well known that this function is the arctangent function, i.e., $f(x) = \arctan x$.

$$\begin{aligned} f'(x) &= \frac{1}{1+x^2} \\ f''(x) &= -\frac{2x}{(1+x^2)^2} \\ f'''(x) &= \frac{2(1-x^2)}{(1+x^2)^3} \end{aligned}$$

From these formulas it follows that the function $f(x)$ is concave down for $x > 1$ and concave up for $x < -1$. The function has a point of inflection at $x = 0$.

The function $f(x)$ is an odd function, i.e., $f(-x) = -f(x)$. This can be seen from the fact that the integrand $\frac{1}{1+t^2}$ is an even function.

The function $f(x)$ has horizontal asymptotes at $y = \pm \frac{\pi}{2}$. This can be seen from the fact that $\lim_{x \rightarrow \pm\infty} \arctan x = \pm \frac{\pi}{2}$.

The function $f(x)$ is increasing on the entire real line, since $f'(x) > 0$ for all x .

THE ISAAC H. KENNEDY FAMILY

Isaac and Ethie(Ethielinda) Kennedy came to Minnewaukan, Dakota Territory about 1883. They were the first of the Burgess family to come to the West. Someone wrote to them and told them of the good wages---this was the reason they came. It was probably some of the Stowells that wrote to them as there were some that settled in the Minnewaukan and Dunseith area.

They came by train and all their belongings were loaded into a boxcar, including some cattle. When they were told they had to pay more for the shipment of cattle, they had to sell some of their possessions as they had no money left. When they got to Minnewaukan, Aunt Ethie said they didn't have enough money left to buy a spool of thread.

After they got to Minnewaukan, they would have turned right around and went back to Wisconsin as conditions were not as good as expected. In fact, conditions were very poor. Isaac and Ethie homesteaded on a claim near Round Lake, southwest of Minnewaukan. The first year the crop froze and several years after that there were periods of drought. They decided to quit farming. Isaac began working on the railroad and saved up enough money through the years to start the Kennedy Dray Line, which proved to be very successful, going from father to son William. At one time they had four teams and wagons; this service was run by the Kennedy family for many years.

Jane Stowell Kennedy

William Stowell

John Stowell, about 1866.

Isaac Henry Kennedy was the son of Chauncey and Jane Stowell Kennedy. They lived near Rockland, Wisconsin. Isaac married twice. His first wife, Jane, bore him five children: namely, Isaac Henry, Joe, Elmer, Dolly, and Rachel. His second wife bore him the following children: Henry, Marian, Rob, Earl, Carl, and Lettie. The Kennedy's were all farmers. Rachel married an Isaac Gaylord and had two children, Jessie and Mamie, who married a Richmond. Sarah Stowell Burgess and Jane Stowell Kennedy were sisters.

Isaac Kennedy died in 1910 at Minnewaukan. Ethie stayed in Minnewaukan until 1920, when she moved to Ypsilanti, North Dakota with her daughter and son-in-law, May and William Hyslop. There they resided for about ten years, moving to Wisconsin in 1930. Ethie passed away in 1936 at Eleva, Wisconsin.

Of the living children of Isaac and Ethie Kennedy, William resides at Des Moines, Iowa; Ora at Vancouver, Washington; and May at Osseo, Wisconsin.

THE ALBERT HARRIMAN FAMILY

I have very little information on the family of Philenda and Albert Harriman. I do know that they came to Minnewaukan about 1890, where Albert was deputy several years; after Philenda died, Albert and some of his sons went out to Montana, where they lived several years. Albert and Philenda's oldest son died in Montana. Later Albert moved back to North Dakota. He was married twice, his first wife being Philenda.

I have inserted below some additional information on the Harriman family. Although it doesn't directly concern the family of Albert Harriman, I am inserting it in the hope that someone someday may get some benefit from it. Albert Harriman was related to William Harriman.

The below listed information was found in a journal kept by William Harriman, late of Minnewaukan, who studied law. He was a businessman in Wisconsin in 1902. Later he moved to Minnewaukan. There are many entries concerning his expenditures with the following information:

The following is from a letter to William C. Harriman, postmarked January 7, 1907, Eleva, Wisconsin: Mrs. Hannah Maria Harriman (died November 27, 1904) passed away from this earth Sunday morning at 12:30 o'clock. She had suffered greatly with a complication of stomach troubles since June and was taken with a stroke of paralysis on October 31.

She was born in Sheffield, England, December 14, 1834-35 and was a member of the Church of England. She came to the U.S. with her parents James and Mary Booker when she was but 13 years old, landing in New York. They came to Elkhorn, Wisconsin, March 29, 1854, and lived in Sauk Co., until 1869 when they moved to Eau Claire County, and settled on a farm in Otter Creek township. In 1877 they moved to Pleasant Valley township where they lived until 1899 when Manley Harriman died at the age of 69.

Mr. Harriman was born in West-Moreland, Canada, October 14, 1830. He was a soldier in the late war (Civil War) and served in Co. H., 17 Reg., Wisconsin Infantry and marched with Sherman to the sea.

After Mr. Harriman's death in 1899, Mrs. Harriman moved to Eau Claire where she has since resided. She leaves seven children to

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that this is essential for the proper management of the organization's finances and for ensuring transparency in all dealings.

2. The second part of the document outlines the various methods used to collect and analyze data. It describes how this information is used to identify trends, assess risks, and make informed decisions about the future of the organization.

3. The third part of the document provides a detailed overview of the organization's current financial position. It includes a breakdown of revenues, expenses, and assets, as well as a comparison of these figures to the previous year's data.

4. The fourth part of the document discusses the organization's plans for the future. It outlines the goals and objectives for the next year, as well as the strategies and tactics that will be used to achieve these goals.

5. The fifth part of the document provides a summary of the key findings and conclusions of the report. It highlights the most important issues and recommendations, and provides a clear and concise overview of the organization's current state and future prospects.

mourn her death. They are Mrs. Alma M. Vincent of Wimlock, Washington, Mrs. Clara B. Ainslie of Seattle, Washington, Mrs. Paul E. Rudolph of the town of Washington, Eau Claire County, Mr. James M. and Frank E. Harriman of Pleasant Valley, and Jesse M. and William C. Harriman of Eau Claire, also a brother, Edwin Booker of Janesville, Wisconsin.

The remains were taken to Janesville, Wisconsin for interment. The following is taken from other notations in the journal: Manley and H. Maria married at Elkhorn, Wisconsin, March 29, 1854.

Children(Harriman):

- (1) Alma born May 26, 1855, married a Vincent.
- (2) James born January 9, 1857; died Dec. 30, 1920, at Wisconsin.
- (3) Emma Jane born January 21, 1864, married Paul E. Rudolph; she died June 12, 1923, burried at Forest Hill, Wisconsin.
- (4) Clara born May 12, 1868, married an Ainslie.
- (5) William born August 22, 1873; died at Minnewaukan, North Dakota.
- (6) Frank born January 14, 1876, married February 2, 1899. Children were Manley McKinley, born October 31, 1899 and Edwin Lester born July 28, 1902; Frank married Ella Jacot, born April 27, 1875(I believe this Ella Jacot mentioned also in the Jacot history is a cousin of Charles Otis Jacot).

Manley Harriman died July 18, 1899. Frank Harriman's home burned entirely with contents in April, 1915 from lightning. Fred Rowland's birth was January 14, 1836. James Harriman, born November 1, 1840(probably a brother of Manley), at a quarter to four in the morning. He worked for one man near Wamponton, Massachusetts for eight years. Isaac H. Burgess born May 4, 1833; died November 20, 1919; burried Saturday, November 21, 86 years, 6 mos., and 16 days. J. C. Cleghorn, born July 24, 1833; died January 19, 1913, at Centreal House, Eau Claire, Wisconsin from choking caused by chronic catarrk. Burried beside his wife in Jackson cemetery, Clear Creek township, Eau Claire County, Wisconsin. J. M. Reynolds, born November 15, 1870. The only surviving child of Philenda and Albert Harriman is Joseph, who resides at St. Hilaire, Minnesota.

THE ALONZO D. THOMSON FAMILY

Cora Burgess was the fourth child born to Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Burgess. She lived with her parents in the town of Otter Creek, in Eau Claire County, Wisconsin, on a farm until she was twelve years old. Then she went to make her home with Rachel Stowell. She helped her grandmother until the age of eighteen. At the age of eighteen she married Alonzo Thomson. They lived on a farm at Otter Creek, Alonzo was a very excellent farmer and prospered well. He provided a very comfortable home and all the family worked hard, but they enjoyed the farm life even though they like others knew nothing of the comforts of today.

The following is what became of the family through the years: Orpha stayed home to help her mother; Mable went to Osseo and took up millinery; Nora went into dressmaking. Mable married and lived on the farm near Osseo, Wisconsin where she now lives. Nora married Alta Stone and they moved to Canada where they made their home. Nora (Elnora) passed away in 1953. Orpha later married Peter Olia, a neighbor, and they lived on the old Olia farm. A few months after they were married they lost a pair of twin boys, born premature. They were not named. After a year and seven months Orpha's husband died of spinal meningitis. Orpha returned home to her mother's. In the meantime Isaac married Eva Lablanc. They went to Montana, where they took up a claim, Orpha's father, Alonzo Thomson, passed away and Guy, the youngest son, took over the farm as the second son, Ray, had gone to Canada to make his home. However, Guy did not live very long; then Isaac came back to take over the farm.

Orpha and her mother, Cora, purchased a home in the outskirts of Osseo, where Orpha now lives. In 1924, Orpha married George McDonell. He was a mechanic and worked in a garage in Augusta, Wisconsin, until his retirement a couple years ago.

Alonzo Thomson comes from a family of sixteen. The family must have scattered at an early age because they do not know anything about his folks. Alonzo purchased a farm in the town of Otter Creek in Eau Claire County, where he lived until his death in 1913. It is thought that Alonzo was of English and Scotch descent, and came from Nebraska to Mauston, Wisconsin and then to Otter Creek. Of the living children of Cora and Alonzo Thomson, Mabel resides at Osseo, Wisconsin, Orpha at Osseo, and Ray at Dewberry, Alberta, Canada.

and settled on a farm in Modena, Buffalo County, Wisconsin. They farmed here until the death of Sarah Green in 1875. Then Freeman went out to work wherever he could find work. During the winter he worked in the woods, cutting logs for lumber.

When Freeman was 28 years old, he and Lillian Lorea Burgess were married. They were married January 1, 1884, at Eau Claire, Wisconsin. The first winter, Freeman worked in the saw mills; in the spring they moved to and bought the farm in the town of Clear Creek, Eau Claire County, Wisconsin. Lillian Lorea Green is presently living on this farm.

The Freeman Green's always went to the Methodist Church and did all they could to help support the church besides caring for a family of eleven children.

Sarah Ann Dale Green was of German ancestry and her husband Edward was of old New England stock. Sarah was the only child in her family; her parents were wealthy merchants and died at Dunville, Ontario, Canada. Sarah was buried in Modena, Wisconsin. A few years later Freeman and his brother Amanual took her up and brought her up to Eau Claire County. They found the coffin was just as heavy as it was when she was buried, so they opened it. They found that her body had petrefied. They took a lock of her hair and Mrs. Lillian Green has it now. The removing of hair from deceased or living relatives or friends is an old custom. It was often weaved or braided into something which they could save as a remembrance.

Lillian and Freeman Green

THE FRANKLIN J. TURNEY FAMILY

Elizabeth Burgess was the eighth child of Mr. and Mrs. Burgess. She lived with her parents on a farm in the town of Pleasant Valley, Eau Claire County, Wisconsin, until she was about eighteen. Then she began working as a housekeeper for her oldest sister, Ella(Elnia) Arries, near Augusta, Wisconsin. There she met Frank Turney, who was working as a hired hand for William Arries. A few years later they married and made their home in Eau Claire, Wisconsin, on Michigan Street.

Frank Turney worked for the Daniel Shaw Lumber Company for about seven years. During that time, three daughters were born, Buelah, Marcia, and Avis. Then the family moved to the Asplin farm between Osseo and Augusta, where they lived for about five or six years. Frank then purchased an eighty acre farm in a hilly region about twelve miles southeast of Eau Claire, in the town of Washington, Eau Claire County; here two sons were born. About three years later Frank purchased a farm closer to Eau Claire. It was at this home they lived until their death, Elizabeth in 1934, and Frank in 1948. Frank worked in a cemetery as a laborer until two years before his death. Elizabeth was a hard working devoted wife and perfect mother. Frank always provided us the necessities of life and a common ordinary good home. The family was members of the Washington Baptist Church and served the Saviour in every way they could. Frank Turney belonged to a lodge and they took an active part in the Guernsey Breeders Association. Elizabeth had a nickname of Libb; many of the Burgesses had nicknames or used their middle names.

Franklin Turney was the oldest of a family of five boys and one girl of George and Frances Turney. When Frank was about thirteen his father and mother separated. He and his mother kept the family together by their working out. When his mother married a Mr. Ward, the boys shifted for themselves and his sister married at an early age. To Frances and Mr. Ward was born Ethel Ward Philips. A few years later they separated. Then Frances married 3rd a young man from whom she separated in a year or two. She then married a man by the name of Jake Minor. They lived in Mauston, Wisconsin, until he passed away. She and Ethel lived in Augusta, Wisconsin, for a few years; then, they moved to Eau Claire where they worked out for their support with the help of Frank and other relatives. Frances passed away in the 1920's. Her parents came from Ireland.

George Turney lived by himself until he became ill; then, he lived with his son, Frank, on the farm until his death. He was of English, Irish, and Scotch descent.

All of the children of Elizabeth and Franklin Turney are living. Buelah, Marcia, Avis, Gerald, and Jerome are at Eau Claire and Grey is living at Lansing, Michigan.

THE SHERIDAN L. BURGESS FAMILY

Maude and Sheridan Burgess came to Minnewaukan, North Dakota in 1902. The first summer they worked for a farmer west of Minnewaukan. Later, they moved to Minnewaukan, where Sheridan took up work on the Northern Pacific Railroad. He worked on the railroad for many years. The section crew varied from three and four men. Sheridan's brother Isaac Derwood was section boss for a time.

They later moved to a farm two miles southeast of Minnewaukan, where they lived many years. He worked for the railroad even while farming, as the railroad was only a couple miles away. He walked the distance every morning.

Sheridan and family moved to Oberon, North Dakota about 1924-25 and lived there a couple of years. Then they moved back to Minnewaukan, where they spent the rest of their days. After the family home of Isaac and Sarah Burgess was destroyed by fire, another house was moved in on the same place. Sheridan and Maude made this place their home.

Maude Lillian Burgess was a daughter of Mary Eighmey and Charles Rice. Mary and Charles had three children: Maude, Ward Henry, and a girl who died in infancy. Mary Eighmey was a daughter of Cholie M. Stowell and William W. Eighmey. Cholie died June 16, 1903(?), at Tyrone, Wisconsin; and William W. Eighmey died September, 1903, at Cadott, Wisconsin. Cholie and William had ten children, two boys and eight girls. They were Edward, married May; Blanche, married John Sly, she died in 1960, at Eau Claire, Wisconsin, aged 83. She was survived by six children; they were Vernon, Harold, Hugh, Raymond, Lawrence, and Dorothy. Ettie, died in 1903, at Tyrone, Wisconsin; Gertie; Mary, born April 12, at Tyrone; Winnie married a Taylor(George?). Winnie is still living. Gladys who lost two daughters and a large home in a fire while the rest of the family was out picking berries. Gladys had a very large family. Bessie was the seventh daughter of the seventh daughter. There was a saying that a person such as this could inherit a gift to be able to do or become famous in anything. Bessie was a housewife and had three children, Myrtle, who married Bert Harriman, Russell, and Lyle. Myrtle married Marian Houchin and she died at Kelliher, Minnesota. She had three children, Villa, Donald, and Ethel. Ward married Bird. It is believed that Cholie and William also had two children that died in infancy.

The following is a copy of the obituary of Mrs. Cholie M. Eighmey:

Mrs. Cholie M. Eighmey of Tyrone died Saturday morning, June 16, (1903?), of congestion of the brain, Rev. J. Jefferson conducted the funeral services at the house Monday at 11 o'clock with interment in the cemetery near the Forest Center Schoolhouse. Vermont was Mrs. Eighmey's native state. She was married to Mr. Eighmey at Lodi, Wisconsin, in September, 1861. Ten children, eight girls and two boys were born to them all whom are living except one. The children were all with her till the last excepting one daughter living in Mo., who did not arrive until after the funeral. Mrs. Eighmey was 56 years, one month, and 14 days old at the time of her death. She was a faithful affectionate wife and a devoted mother, who will be greatly missed in the home circle. The bereaved family have the deep sympathy of their friends in this vicinity.

Charles Rice had brothers, Dell and George(?). Dell lived in Portland, Oregon. Charles Rice died and was buried in Minnesota or Wisconsin. Mary Rice died and is buried at Minnewaukan as is Ward Rice. William Rice married Ida Blasidell, who bore him one child Rosemary; he later married Jessie.

All of the children of Maude and Sheridan Burgess are living. Marian is at Jamestown, North Dakota; Mabel is at Fargo; Isaac is at Maddock, North Dakota; Bessie and Florence are at Sheycenne, North Dakota; and Sheridan II, is at Devils Lake, North Dakota.

THE I. D. BURGESS FAMILY

Isaac Derwood Burgess first came to Dakota Territory about 1886, with his parents. He came by train to Jamestown and then north on the Northern Pacific Railroad branch line to Minnewaukan, North Dakota, which was the end of the line at the time. He returned with his family to Wisconsin after a few years of hardships.

Then in 1902, Isaac H. and Sarah Burgess, their two sons, and their youngest daughter came back to North Dakota along with Sheridan's wife, Maude and their daughter Marian for another try. On April 8, 1902, I. H. Burgess purchased some lots and buildings on the south edge of Minnewaukan where I. D. Burgess and his father built a fine home. Here the Burgess clan was to gather many times. Part of the house was there originally and they added onto it. The place was purchased from Charles Griffin. As time went by I. H. Burgess acquired 22 lots surrounding his home.

I. D. Burgess lived with his folks until he filed a claim about 1½ miles east of Minnewaukan on what is known as Knowlton's ridge. I. H. Burgess and his brother Jeff (W. Jefferson) walked out there everyday and helped Derwood build his claim shack. This claim was later given up. During this time Derwood worked on the railroad and ran steam engines, for thrashing machines. He did most of this type of work for Louis Delavergne. He had the engines fired up before daybreak as they began thrashing at daybreak. His job was known as that of a steam engineer.

On November 12, 1914, Isaac Derwood Burgess was wed to Hulda Katherine Geske at the home of Isaac and Ethie Kennedy in Minnewaukan. The Kennedy home was located just south across the street from the Burgess home.

I. D. Burgess and Hulda lived at his parental home in Minnewaukan for a couple of years, then they moved to a farm about the 1st of April, 1920. They farmed 120 acres in the Fort Totten locality. They moved back to Minnewaukan about 1922. All the children were born in Minnewaukan except Lloyd who was born on the farm.

Derwood started an electrical correspondence course in 1923; however, he didn't complete it. He did learn enough though so that when electricity came to Minnewaukan, he wired many of the homes. Then he started working for George Dickinson, as a service station attendant until 1929. Isaac and Hulda now lived at the home of I. H. Burgess again. On July 4, about 1928, the Burgess home was completely destroyed by fire. Most of the family possessions were saved; however, many were also lost.

-- Then Derwood did more thrashing and in 1932 he began working in the Benson County courthouse as custodian. He worked there until 1942. Then he and his son Lloyd moved to a farm one mile southeast of Minnewaukan, where they started farming. On this farm is located the claim shack built for I. D. Burgess by his father and his uncle W. Jefferson Burgess. The farm was originally allotted to Al LaRose, who built the house. Al LaRose was one of the first settlers in that area.

Hulda Katherine Burgess was the daughter of Gottlieb and Hulda Augusta Wilhelmina Krause Geske. She was born near Park Rapids, Minnesota. She spent the early part of her life keeping house for her uncle Charles Krause, at Park Rapids and later came to Minnewaukan and helped her father in carrying mail from Minnewaukan to Graham's Island and vice-versa. Many times she went out alone with the horse and buggy to deliver the mail. In the winter time they came across the frozen Devils Lake as it was much shorter. Gottlieb Geske used to walk the distance many times. The first Geske home on Graham's Island consisted of a two story home built of logs, which was later destroyed by fire. Hulda's parents were of German ancestry and were born in Germany. Her mother came from Germany to Riedsville, Wisconsin in 1882. In 1884, her mother married Gottlieb Geske in Wisconsin. They came to Dorset, Minnesota in April, 1887 and to Graham's Island in March, 1897. Hulda Burgess had three sisters; Lena, Martha, and one who died in infancy. Her brothers were Charles, William, Arie, and Theodore.

Hulda Geske, mother of Hulda Burgess, was born February 25, 1861, at Aboedour-Kries, Flahtan, Marenverder, West Prussia, Germany; died May 6, 1953, at Graham's Island, North Dakota. Her father was Gottlieb Krause, born March 31, 1927, in Germany and died March 13, 1917, at Park Rapids, Minnesota. He married Elizabeth Weise, in Semplecove, West Prussia, Germany. Elizabeth was born February 1837, and died September 17, 1921, at Graham's Island, North Dakota. Elizabeth had eleven children and her father was Micheal Weise. Several of her children died in Germany.

Gottlieb Geske was born January 3, 1856, in Sempleburgh, West Prussia, Germany. His father Ludwig Geske and his mother Susan Wick, both died in 1862, when he was six years old. Gottlieb came to Riedsville, Wisconsin in 1881. He died June 10, 1949, at Graham's Island.

WILLIAM STOWELL(Signature)

(At this point in the diary, William Stowell signed his name--apparently he thought that he was close to death).

July 1-Friday-Lay in camp. The Rebels came over with a flag of truce to ask permission to bury our men out of the Indiana and fetched over Atlanta paper for to exchange for----

2-Saturday-The Rebs evacuated Kennesaw Mountains and we moved to the right 4 miles and rested about 3 hours.

3-Sunday-We marched 14 miles and encamped for the night. Our company was detailed for picket.

4-Monday-Lay over until 4 o'clock. Pulled up and advanced 2 miles and lay down for the night in the edge of a corn field.

5-Fortified. Pulled up and advanced 3 miles and with heavy skirmishing we charge on their works and drove them out of it and advanced to their main line of works. We halted and fortified. Henry Flouneau was wounded and 4 of party slightly.

6-Wednesday-Nothing of any importance is going on today; but heavy skirmishing and shelling the Rebs works.

7-Thursday-Detailed to cut timber to build bridge across Incoga(?) Creek.

8-Friday-Still inching before the Rebs.

9-Saturday-In the night the Rebs evacuated their works and our pickets occupied them.

10-Sunday-We advanced into the Rebs works as they fell back and our company was detailed to work on the fort all night.

11-Monday-Was transferred to the 2nd brigade, 3rd division, of the 17th army corps and we took our position in the 32nd Ohio place they relieved us.

12-Tuesday-Drew rations and it rained in the afternoon some and issued us vegetables and desecate potatoes and beans.

13-Wednesday-Pulled up and moved to the right to the 1st brigade which we were assigned to general force in command. One of company "C" got shot through the heart and died instantly.

14-Thursday-Nothing of any importance is going on today. One of company "H" got shot on picket today. He has died.

15-Very warm. Nothing more than usual is going on today. The Rebs shot a few shells over at our gun that was on picket, but no damage was done as I have heard.

16-Saturday-Pulled up and marched 18 miles to Maryette and encamped for the night.

17-Sunday-Pulled up and marched through Maryette 16 miles and marched through Rossville, crossed the Chattahoochee River 4 miles and encamped for the night.

18-Monday-Pulled up and marched about 6 miles and encamped for the night on a small stream.

19-Tuesday-Pulled up and marched 5 miles and encamped for the night in oats field.

This is the end of the diary. The diary also contains a baby picture of William Stowell, his discharge paper, and receipts of Salu Stowell in payment of property tax. The following is a copy of the discharge of William Stowell: The William Stowell a Private of Captain John Gillispies Company(E), 12th Regiment of Wisconsin Infantry Volunteers who was enrolled on the first day of October one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one to serve three years or during the war, is hereby discharged from the service of the United States, this fourth day of January, 1864, at Natchez, Mississippi by reason of re-enlistment as a veteran volunteer(No objection to his being re-enlisted is known to exist).

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for the transparency and accountability of the organization. This section also outlines the various methods used to collect and analyze data, ensuring that the information is reliable and up-to-date.

2. The second part of the document focuses on the implementation of these practices. It details the steps involved in setting up a robust system for data collection and analysis. This includes identifying the key areas of focus, selecting appropriate tools and technologies, and training staff to ensure they are proficient in using the system. The goal is to create a seamless workflow that allows for efficient data management.

3. The third part of the document addresses the challenges faced during the implementation process. It acknowledges that there may be resistance to change or a lack of resources. However, it provides strategies to overcome these obstacles, such as clear communication, providing adequate training, and seeking external support when necessary. The emphasis is on persistence and adaptability.

4. The final part of the document summarizes the key findings and conclusions. It reiterates the importance of a systematic approach to data management and the potential benefits of a well-implemented system. The document concludes by encouraging continuous improvement and regular review of the processes to ensure they remain effective and relevant over time.

Said William Stowell was born in _____, in the state of New York, is twenty years of age, 5 feet 7 inches high, fair complexion, grey eyes, brown hair, and by occupation, when enrolled, a farmer.

Given at Natchez, Minnissippi, this fourth day of January, 1864. Apparently William served his time, then re-enlisted for another 3 years. The following information is taken from photocopies of his war records: William Stowell was enrolled October 1, 1861, at Delton, Wisconsin, and mustered into service November 5, 1861, at Madison, Wisconsin. On the muster roll of his regiment for the months of July and August, 1864, he is reported "Died July 22, 1864 of wounds received July 21, 1864. Nature of wounds and place not stated."

His mother's declaration for army pension gives the following information: On the 27 day of August, 1864, Rachel Stowell, aged 60 years, a resident of Juneau County, Wisconsin appeared before the county judge. She declared that she is the widow of Joseph Stowell and the mother of William Stowell who was a private in the Civil War and who died at Atlanta, Georgia on or about July 22, 1864, by reason of a gunshot wound while in the line of duty.

On October 16, 1866, F. M. Neer and F. C. Wright, of Bildou County, Wisconsin appeared before the justice of the peace and declared that they are personally acquainted with Mrs. Rachel Stowell of Seven Mile Creek, Wisconsin. It was also declared that the father of the said soldier died on the 16 day of May, 1864, in indigent circumstances and that for a long time previous to his death he and his wife Rachel Stowell, were dependant on the said William Stowell for their whole support. That Joseph Stowell, father of William Stowell, died leaving no property and leaving the mother aged and in feeble health without any visable means of support except the labors of the said son William Stowell of whom the mother looked to for her entire support during the remainder of her life and that they have been acquainted with the family for the last ten years. The soldier left no brothers or sisters under sixteen years of age.

THE STOWELL FAMILY

The following information is taken from The Stowell Genealogy, by W. H. H. Stowell. In the front of the book is a picture of the Stowell house, at Quantock County, Somerset, England, on the South coast 6 miles from the Bristol Channel. The manor of Cothelstone came into the Stowell family in 1066 and is much older than that, and at that time consisted of a mansion, 1 church, 11 houses, and 54 cottages. It was in the Stowell family from 1066 to 1820.

The founder of the family was a Norman Knight named Adam who came over with William the Conqueror in 1066 and his services were rewarding him the manor above mentioned. Norman knights were known only by their surnames and gradually took full names. Adam went from (1) Adam (2) Sir Adam de Coreston (3) Sir Adam de Cothelstone and (4) Sir Adam de Stawelle. Adam came from Normandy, France.

The family was very well to do in the 12th, 13th, 14th, and 15th.

centuries, and added to their lands by purchasing other estates around them. When Cromwell came into power, all their property was confiscated, but later was partially restored under Charles II. A great many of the Stowells are buried in and around the church of the Stowell manor.

The first of this genealogy will be Samuel Stowell, born 1625 of Samuel who died in 1628. Immigrant Samuel Stowell came to this country when 10 years old, an orphan probably apprenticed to someone as his name is not on the ship register. He came with a large party from Hingham, England and settled in Hingham, Mass., 1635, naming it after their old home in England. This was the start of Hingham, Mass.

In 1649, he married Mary Farrow, October 25, 1649, who was the daughter of John and Francis Farrow. Mary was born September 22, 1633, and died October 24, 1708. Mary was born in Hingham, England, County of Norfolk, and came to this country with her parents in 1635. Mary's father was John Farrow who died in Hingham, Mass., July 7, 1686-7. Mary's mother was Francis Carpenter who died January 28, 1688-9

Samuel(1) was born in 1625 and died November 9, 1683, and was a blacksmith by trade and did very well with it, as he had a nice house in Hingham at Fort Hill Station. He, and since then all the Stowells in the vicinity have worshipped in a parish that built the church called "The Old Ship" which was built in 1680. The Stowell house was a showplace at one time because 9 or 11 generations had lived there. Another source lists the children of Samuel Stowell as 13, of whom nine were sons. The children of Samuel(1) and Mary Farrow.

Children(Stowell):

- (1) Mary, born August 25, 1653; died November 22, 1714; married John Garnet, February 25, 1662-3.
- (2) Samuel, born May 18, 1655; died September 21, 1695; married Rachel Gill, January 13, 1684. Rachel was born October 3, 1661; died April 6, 1715, daughter of Theodore and Hannah Otis Gill.
- (3) John, born March 16, 1657-8.
- (4) David, born April 8, 1660; died September 9, 1724; married 1st Mary Champrey and had 2 children, Samuel and Ruth; married 2nd Mary Stedman, of Newton, Mass., April 7, 1692; died September 27, 1724.
- (5) Remmler, born April 22, 1662; died November 5, 1694; married Theodore Remmington, March 16, 1684.
- (6) Infant 1664-1664.
- (7) Israel born April 27, 1668; died November 5, 1669.
- (8) Israel born October 10, 1670.)
- (9) William, born October 10, 1670.)—Twins
- (10) Benjamin, born June 8, 1676.
- (11) Elizabeth, born June, 1678; died April 25, 1746; married George Lane or Lowe, December 14, 1699.

David(2) above, was the 4th child of Samuel and Mary Farrow Stowell, born in Hingham, Mass., died at Newton, Mass.

Children(Stowell):

- (1) David
- (2) Mary, born 1695.
- (3) Jonathan, born 1697.
- (4) John, born 1699.

THE ROOT FAMILY

The following information is about the ancestors of Phoebe Root, who married Isaac Stowell.

One of the first settlers of Hartford, Connecticut was Thomas Root. He was the son of John and Ann Russell Root(e). Thomas was born January 16, 1605; at Badby, England(?); died 1694. He came to this country about 1637. The second son of Thomas, Thomas Root, was born 1644, in Hartford, Conn.; married Abigail Alvord who was born October 6, 1647, at Windsor, Conn.; died June 17, 1699. Abigail was the eldest daughter of Alexander and Mary Voar Alvord. The father of Mary Voar Alvord was Richard Voar (Vore). Thomas married 2nd Mary Cox, December 4, 1701. She was a widow, her maiden name being Kirtland. She was born June 3-8, 1640. The first son Deacon Thomas Root, born April 11, 1667; died January 19, 1758, Deacon Thomas Root married Thankfull Strong, March 4, 1691, daughter of Jedediah and Freedom Woodward Strong of Northampton. He went to Coventry, Conn; and was the first deacon in Coventry. Their 8th child was Samuel Root, who was born October 17, 1705, in Coventry; married March 12, 1728 to Mercy Parker. He removed from Coventry to Wellington, Conn. They had 13 children of whom Phoebe Root was the fourth. Phoebe had brothers Rufus, Nathan, Ezra, and Elias. This, therefore, is the Root line: John, Thomas, Thomas, Deacon Thomas, Samuel, and Phoebe, who married Isaac Stowell.

THE STRONG FAMILY

Elder John Stron is the grandfather of Thankfull Strong Root. He was born 1605, in England; died 1699. He married 2nd Abigail Ford, who died in 1688. Abigail was a daughter of Thomas Ford of Dorchester. Elder John Strong and Abigail Ford, were the parents of a son, Jedediah Strong, born 1637; died 1733. Jedediah married Freedom Woodward (Henry).

WAR RECORDS OF TIMOTHY BURGESS

The information following is taken from photocopies of the war records of Timothy Burgess. A receipt from the Acting Auditor, dated

The information on the Stowell family history is taken from the book, "The Stowell Family", by William Henry Harrison Stowell, copyright 1922, by William Averill Stowell in Amherst, Mass. Published by the Tuttle Co., of Rutland, Vt. The Root history is taken from Root Genealogy Records, 1600-1780 by James Pierce Root 1860 (E7R678).

[The page contains extremely faint, illegible text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side. The text is organized into several paragraphs and possibly a list or table structure, but the characters are too light to transcribe accurately.]

August 4, 1871 shows that Timothy Burgess, Drummer(?), was on the rolls of Capt. Elnathan Cobb's Company of New York Militia and served from October 27, 1814, to November 30, 1814. His declaration for land pension yields the following information: On the 15th day of January, 1856, Timothy Burgess, aged 62, a resident of Dodge County, Wisconsin, declared that he was a private in the war commanded by Captain Cobb in the regiment commanded by Thadeus M. Wood. in the war with Great Britain declared by the United States on the 18th day of June 1812. He further declared that he was called out on or about the 1st day of November, 1814, and was discharged at Sandy Creek, New York, on or about the 1st day of December, 1814. He received no writtendischarge, but was discharged by companies.

His declaration for pension gives the following information: On the eighth day of April, 1871, the Dodge County Judge appeared in behalf of Timothy Burgess, declaring that Timothy was 74 years, a resident of Portland, Dodge County, Wisconsin, that he is married, that his wife's name was Lodica Porter to whom he was married at Constantia on the 1st day of June, 1816. His post office address was listed as Waterloo, Jefferson County, Wisconsin. His witnesses Alphonzo Whipple and Minor Woodford were from the town of Portland, Wisconsin.

MORE DESCENDANTS

The following information was received too late to be put in its right place and is being given here: These all concern the descendants of Elnia and William Arries. Grandchild #24, Robert and Delores Gabler had a son, William Wade, born March 31, 1961, at Eau Claire, Wisconsin. Grandchild #18, Warren and Una Arries, had a son, Daren Stewart, born April 7, 1961, at Eau Claire, Wisconsin. Grandchild #19, Elizabeth Annies, married Byron Grassnickle, January 7, 1961, at Eau Claire, Wisconsin; they are parents of a daughter Gereta Arlene, born May 17, 1961. Great-grandchild #10, Gene McCune, married Clara Osley are parents of a daughter, Tamela Kay, born May 15, 1961, at Whitehall, Wisconsin. Tamela is the first great-great grandchild I have listed for Elnia and William Arries. I believe that there are more, however, I do not have them on my records.

The following concerns the descendants of Isaac and Ethie Kennedy, through their son, William. Vera Howard Kennedy, born June 17, 1889. Rowan Kennedy married August 28, 1934, at Devils Lake, North Dakota. Birth's of Rowan's children: Raymond, February 20, 1935, at Brinsmade, North Dakota; Kenneth, October 1937, at Devils Lake, North Dakota; Wayne, June 28, 1942, at Devils Lake; Mary, January 17, 1948, at Devils Lake; and Norman, July 14, 1950, at Maddock, North Dakota. Keith Kennedy, married September 24, 1960, at Des Moines, Iowa. Hally Kennedy married June 15, in California. Birth's of Hally's children: Darrel, May 15, 1942, in California; Darlene, September, 1947, in California. Birth's of Donnelly's children: Carla, Donna and Debra, at Devils Lake, North Dakota. Rowan and Esther Kennedy were divorced in 1960.

Marian Burgess, page 71, is married to a minister of the Assembly of God Church in Jamestown, N. D. Marie Burgess Brown, daughter of W. Jefferson Burgess is a minister of the Glad Tidings Tabernacle in New York City..
